DR. A. YOUNG'S
Bronchial Syrup.
This BRONCHIAL SYRUP is a safe and certain remedy for SCROFULA in many of its varying forms. Its effects are speedy and permanent. It cures rapidly Coughs, Colds, Croup, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption in its early stages, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, General Debility, &c.

This preparation is perfectly harmless, never producing any unpleasant symptoms or the slightest injury to the tone of the most delicate organs. Its results are Tonic and Invigorating, giving a good and healthy appetite. It is composed of fresh and unadulterated materials, which, from their combination, exercise an alterative influence over the entire system. This Medicine is also efficacious upon the Air Passages, curing Coughs, Colds, Croup, Asthma, and Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and also upon the Alimentary Canal, stimulating and strengthening its action, and driving out that Hydra-headed monster, Dyspepsia.

It has been tested by large numbers of persons, and has invariably given relief and satisfaction. It is also prescribed by many prominent physicians in this State.

Among those who have tested it and testified to its efficacy, we mention Rev. J. H. Daily, M. Q. Waddell, Esq., Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, Gov. Holden, Rev. W. H. Wills, Rev. T. M. Jones, A. B. Hawkins, M. NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!
Creech's.
I MAKE MY BOW AGAIN TO MY NUMERous friends and patrons, with a house full of goods and still they come.
Why, just look, the streets filled with drays all loaded with new Good's
FOR CREECH'S.
Just received, 50 CASES OF DRY GOODS, containing a large and varied assortment; and when you talk about Dress Goods, and when you think of new styles and speak of Goods at the right prices, why, bear in mind that they are here and new opened at Creech's. COME AND LOOK AT THEM.
CALICOES, CALICOES.
I will sell you Calicoes at 8 cents a per yard, want you look at them at 10 cents? and cant you afford to buy them at 12½c.
Goods for Men's and Boy's Wear.
Don't you know that I keep the best assortment in the City? You that do not know it, come and look at those and to you that do know, come right along and buy what you want. I have got some for the boy's, plenty for the youth's. A fine supply for the young men and enough to keep the old gentlemen warm, so why not spend a few moments at Creech's and satisfy yourselves?

There the remote Bermudas ride
In the Ocean's bosom unespied;
From a small boat that rowed a-long
The listning winds received the song.
COME TO CREECH'S.

Cloaks and Shawls, Cloaks and Shawls.
Did I say Cloaks and Shawls? That is just what I mean. Why I will sell them to you for $2.00! Do you want them cheaper? same quality. Cant find them! Do you want them finer? I am just the man that has them, 5, 7, 8, 10, 12, 15, 20, 25 and 30 dollars; do you want them finer still? Just say so, and I am the man to order them.
Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.
Just received 100 Cases for Ladies, Misses, Boys and Children; so just put that naked foot into a boot or shoe, for it will soon be cold weather, and my friend, I see your boots are wearing out, and your shoes have a hole in them, so you had just as well come to Creech's and buy a new pair. They look better and fit better, any way; they keep your feet dry and preserve your health.
Hats, Hats, Hats.
All right; Prices right; Styles right; and did you know that Creech's is the place to buy hats right? Come and look.

The Wilmington Post, in an article upon the Republican party in this State, and its present condition, has the following:

"We know we are right. We know God works with us, and we know He must work against the foes of His household, and of every wise and perfect thing. We know that our party rules the country it saved; and that the supreme arm of the law and of bold spirits who will ever "rally around the flag" sustains us. Why then are Republicans disheartened, and why do they give way to general despondency? We will tell them. REPUBLICANS HAVE NO LEADER. They have no bond of union, and they admit no tie stronger than mere personal advantage. Each dog barks loudest for the public bone."

Republicans have no leader! Where is the Governor? Did he not lead you into a war upon the people of the State? Did he not lead the State, by your aid, into bankruptcy? Did he not lead the "Ring," which was composed of the representatives of your party? Did he not lead you into the Penitentiary swindle! Did he not lead many of you into the Penitentiary, and by his pardoning power lead many of you out of it? Did he not lead you into the Railroad appropriations? Has he not lead you to ruin? Did he not violently lead Auditor Adams out of the jailor's hands while on his way to jail by order of Judge Pearson? Did he not lead Judge Pearson in his action in refusing to enforce the writ of habeas corpus?

Where is Judge Pearson? Did he not lead you into that terrible abyss on the 4th day of last August, when he failed to prevent your partizan Executive from imprisoning and hanging peaceable and innocent citizens? Did he not exhaust himself in leading, through Kirk, good men to jail and to the hangman's rope, and bad men by his decision, from the Penitentiary?

Where is Littlefield? Did he not lead your Legislature into bribery and corruption by the payment of $241,000? Did he not lead your Governor to sign and issue thousands and millions of the people's bonds in a secret and hasty manner, so that he could get them off before the Courts could stop him? Did he not lead the people's money out of the State, and into his own pockets? And did he not lead himself out of the country to avoid arrest?

Where is Col. Clarke? Did he not lead a portion of your party gallantly down Fayetteville street on the fourth day of last August? Did he not "gird on his sword for the third time," and lead your State melish?

Where is Abbott and Pool, Sam Philips, Taz Hargrove, Judge Settle, Gen. Clingman, Pilgrim Ashley—who, with the aid and counsel of your Governor, sold 300,000 acres of the people's lands for $50,000,—Dewcese, and hosts of others of the same stripe? If your party has no leaders, what has it got? and if you have not been lead, what have you been? Have you not been too well lead?

But says the Post, in conclusion:

"As we have said time and again, "let us support business men for office," and let us put none but Americans on guard. We want no more fellows who carry their hearts in their bellies, and who are prepared to sell out on all occasions. The long list of dishonorables has been increasing of late and the wretch who groveled in the dust for position and power desires to use the sham elevation he may have to the better injure his benefactors. Let all such beware. There is another infamy worse than carpet-bagging, and that is "treason.""

A most suitable conclusion! "The long list of dishonorables has been increasing of late." Yes, we believe several have "gone over" to your party in the last twelve months, thereby increasing your "list of dishonorables;" but we think it in bad taste for the Post to fling such remarks at its own party, and leaders, and especially the new converts, such as Phillips, Rotating Dick and a few others in strong radical counties, who have gone over.

CORRECTION.

Sheriff Lee called to say that "it was a d—d lie in regard to his telegraphing that Senator Graham had introduced a bill to exclude foreigners from holding office."—We give him the benefit of his correction in his own language. We got the information from more than six different persons. Timothy will not deny that he did receive ten thousand dollars in bonds in the black mailing suit.

The Newbern Times man says that "all we have learned from it (the Bible) teaches us that "There is a divinity which shapes our ends, Rough hew them as we will."

We have been under the impression heretofore that Shakespear taught us that important fact.

The Salem Press says that some of the public schools in Forsyth county are being opened, but several teachers complain of not having received pay for last season's services. Can Mr. Ashley give satisfactory information relative to the school tax collected during the past two years?

JUDGE BOND.

This distinguished Jurist came here last summer, it was said, at the instance of Gov. Holden, to investigate the Burgin case. After keeping Burgin in jail for two or three months, he released him on Monday night last without letting the Sheriff or the counsel for the prosecution know of it until after the prisoner had left and got beyond the bounds of the State.

On Wednesday at 3 o'clock, His Honor delivered his opinion in the Burgin case, in which the partizan feeling of the Judge is as visible, as it is in his conduct in secretly releasing him.

"The Code" says the Judge, "has not left the power to an angry plaintiff, in a case of simple assault and battery, to fix his damages at any exorbitant sum he pleases in order that the Clerk, under the old practice, shall require bonds in double that sum, so that the defendant might be imprisoned because he could not give it." The Judge calls hanging by the neck and manacling with irons, simple assault and battery—we wonder what, in his estimation, would constitute an aggravated assault?

It is now rumored that King William and Napoleon have agreed upon terms of peace. There may be some plausibility in this report, inasmuch as Napoleon, by the aid of King William, has gathered around him at Wilhelmshohe, a large number of French soldiers, Marshals &c., all of whom it is said are devoted to him, and, would much prefer him on the throne to any of the present republican leaders.

We predicted at the time of Napoleon's shameful surrender at Sedan, that there was an agreement between himself and King William, to the effect that in case of certain results, and on certain conditions, the latter would reinstate the former.—With the several hundred thousand French soldiers who are prisoners in the hands of the Germans, and the aid of King William, it can be easily seen how such a scheme could be carried into effect. The French people are now quite, if not thoroughly, exhausted, and very much demoralized.—They are sorely divided among themselves. They have no leaders in whom they can confide. Hence, if Napoleon, under the patronage and support of King William, will organize the French soldiery who are now prisoners, it will be no difficult matter for him to maintain himself at the head of the government of France. That Napoleon will make full compensation to King William, we have not a doubt.—What the French may say to this coup de tat remains to be seen.

SPEECH OF MR. BADGER.

Before His Honor, the Mayor, on the examination of Capt. White and Lieut. Craige, two of Kirk's men, arrested on a bench warrant sued out by John R. Ireland, of Alamance, before Judge Watts,

Mr. Badger said:

This, if your Honor please, is the battle we fought last summer; I am familiar with every part of the field. John Ireland is not the mover in this, he is the instrument. He was arrested last summer, but not by these men; but by the Executive. The Governor ordered it and his order was obeyed, in pursuance of the constitution and laws.

This trial, sir, is but part of a great political plot. Black hearts; malignant spirits, move John Ireland in the work.—Men who were too dignified to come forward and denounce the murder of Outlaw, and other murders committed in Caswell and Orange. The men that move Ireland to action, have hearts blacker than hell.—(Here the Speaker advanced to the Mayor's desk and drank a glass of water.)

Fellow cit—I beg pardon—your Honor, I was about to say "fellow citizens."

Having premised this much, I now proceed to argument. (Here he read the Shoffner bill, then the opinion of Chief Justice Pearson; declaring the Chief Justice to be the greatest Judge that ever sat on the bench of North Carolina.) I know Judge Pearson is reviled as a dog, by some who would bring him as low as themselves. I beg your Honor's attention to the part of the opinion where the learned Judge lays it down, "That the safety of the State is the supreme law." Who is to judge of the "safety of the State," but the Governor? Are you going to allow those who are bent upon the destruction of society and the government, to be the judges? God forbid!

I well remember, in 1861, when my blood was hot, and your Honor's cool, when I used argument and almost force, to get your Honor to sign the paper raising the Ellis Artillery Company, because President Lincoln had called out troops to execute the law, just as Gov. Holden has done.—In that matter your Honor was right and I was wrong; now it is universally conceded that President Lincoln was right.

When this book I read from is read and understood in North Carolina, it will be conceded that Gov. Holden, too, was right; he had to look to "the safety of the State."

He did look at it, fellow—I mean, your Honor, to his own honor, I say it, and posterity will honor him for it.

The battle, I have said, is over; the Executive was whipped; the people have not sustained him. One of the leaders has been elected to the Senate, others follow up and egg on John Ireland to go over the field and stab the dead bodies. I stand ashamed of humanity, when I see such an exhibition of barbarity. They are now pursuing the trash of a defeated army. I beg pardon, gentlemen, (turning to his clients,) I mean no disrespect, but I mean to say, Why don't the conquerors attack the Governor and Col. Kirk? Why do they follow and continue to fight the humble soldier?

I have said enough, Mr. Mayor, and I beg pardon for having said so much.

"Thus sang the sweet se nestered bird,
Soft as the passing wind;
And I recorded what I heard,
A lesson for mankind."

Mr. Badger's speech was intended more for the negroes who crowded around the Bar than for the Mayor; and had in it more malignity and "turpentine" than argument or decency.

OLD TIME PUNCTUALITY.—An anecdote has come down to us from the olden time in relation to one of the then "standing order" in the eastern part of our State. A parishioner had entered the church after morning prayer had commenced, and at the close of the prayer was thus addressed by his pastor. "Neighbor Bryant, it is to your reproach that you have disturbed the worship of God by entering late, living as you do within a mile of this place, and especially so since here is Goody Barstow who has milked seven cows, made a cheese, and walked five miles to the house of God, in good season."

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Love: Resolution authorizing the Public Treasurer to advertise to let the Executive Mansion and grounds, on the 1st Jan. and for other purposes.

On motion of Mr. Dargan, its further consideration was postponed until Wednesday next.

By Mr. Graham: Resolution authorizing the printing of 350 copies of the Treasurer's report for the use of the Senate, which was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Robbins of Rowan, rules 24 and 25 were so amended as to avoid the loss of a bill because of the absence of a quorum, but that it should resume its place on the calendar.

The following resolusions being laid over under the rules, were taken up and disposed of as follows, to-wit:

Resolution authorizing the printing of the usual number of rules for the Senate and joint rules of both Houses, was adopted.

House resolution of instruction to the Representatives of this State in Congress to use their influence to secure the passage of a bill, introduced by the Hon. A. H. Jones of this State, entitled the North Carolina Extension Railroad Company; adopted.

Bill for the relief of W. C. Pearcey was adopted.

Resolution declaratory of the sense of the people of North Carolina upon the subject of the Homestead, personal property exemption and the right of suffrage.

Resolved, That the people of North Carolina are unalterably opposed to any amendment of the Constitution whereby the Homestead and personal property exemption, secured by virtue of article 10, may be suspended and that the constitutionality of said article, as expounded by the Supreme Court of North Carolina, meets the approval of the people of North Carolina and should be regarded as the settled law of the land.

Resolved, That the right of suffrage as secured by the Constitution of this State ought for all time to remain inviolable, thereby granting to every class of our male population, regardless of race, color or previous condition, the inalienable privilege of voting for every office and place of trust conferred by the Constitution, and that any effort to abridge the right of suffrage is contrary to the genius of our Government and incompatable with the security and rights belonging to the people of North Carolina.

Mr. Morehead moved to amend the 1st resolution by inserting "nor upon the subject of mechanics' and laborers' lein law," which was adopted.

Mr. Olds moved to amend by adding the following proviso: Provided, It be held as lawful, that the Homestead shall not be exempt from executions in criminal cases, which was voted down.

G. W. Price, (col.) offered a substitute for the resolutions declaring that any attempt made to amend the Constitution at this time would be revolutionary in its tendency and should not be attempted, which was voted down.

Mr. Linney offered to amend as follows:

Resolved further, That it be the sense of this body that the Homestead provisions do not apply to damages recovered in action ex delicto.

Mr. Morehead remarked that he hoped that this resolution would go out in such a form that a "wayfaring man though a fool" would understand that his Homestead was safe, that suffrage would not be interfered with and that a laborer could always under any circumstances receive the compensation for his work. He hoped there would be no latin phrase stuck to this, that designing men might use to misguide those who are not versed in law phrases.

Mr. Speed endorsed the remarks of the Senator from Rockingham, and was opposed to all amendments that would touch the Homestead in any manner, and the amendment was voted down.

On motion of Mr. Graham the clause in the 1st resolution "meets the approval of the people of North Carolina" was stricken out and the resolution as amended passed.

FROM THE HOUSE.

A message was received from the House informing the Senate of its concurence in the substitute adopted for the House bill to abolish the office of State Printer.

Mr. Latham moved to amend the bill as follows to wit:

Provided further, That if the Judge be interested as a party defendant in any such suit, action or cause, he shall upon the application of the plaintiff, order the transfer and removal of such suit, action or cause to some county in an adjoining District where the terms of the Court will not interfere with the Judicial duties of the Judge making such order, which was adopted and the bill passed.

THE MAGNET'S POWER.—It one should give me a dish of sand, and tell me there were particles of iron in it, I might look for them with my clumsy fingers and be unable to detect them; but let me take a magnet and sweep through it, and how it would draw to itself the most invisible particles by the mere power of attraction! The unthankful heart, like my finger in the sand, discovers no mercies; but let the thankful heart sweep through the day, as the magnet finds the iron, so will it find in every hour some heavenly blessings—only the iron in God's sand is gold.

192 colored emigrants from Bertie and Washington counties sailed from Baltimore for Liberia last week.

[From Woodhull & Claflin's Weekly.]

Southern Frauds—Carpet Baggers' Operations in North Carolina—Assistance, Aid and Comfort to them from a New Banker and Brokers' Firm in New York—Messrs. Soutter & Co.—As well as much Discomfort and Loss from the same Sources.

The history of fraud and corruption in Legislative bodies in this country has probably no parallel to that perpetrated in North Carolina. Its "General Assembly," elected for 1868-'9, sat for sixteen months out of the twenty four months for which it was elected, and during the entire session little else than schemes of State plunder were discussed or entered upon.

The bulk of its frauds was covered up in a bill for the issue of "special tax bonds," to the amount of about $17,000,000. These bonds were ostensibly for aiding the railroad improvements of the State. Some of these roads are not worth finishing or keeping in order, owing to bad location and defective construction. Others are of utility, and in honest hands would give prosperity to the people.

The entire railroad system of the State is embraced by the following Companies:

The North Carolina Railroad Company.

Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Railroad Company.

Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad Company.

Western North Carolina Railroad Company.

Chatham Railroad Company.

Northwestern Railroad Company.

The Western Railroad Company.

Of these Companies the "Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford" received $4,000,000 of the "special tax bonds."

The "Western North Carolina" received $7,000,000. "The Western" Company, $1,500,000—the remainder being divided out to the Chatham Railroad and the North-western Railroad, and other Companies.

These bonds were delivered over to the officers of the Company mostly in mass—no security for their application to construction of the roads, or safeguards of any kind, being interposed to secure the State from loss—and strange as it may appear, this was permitted, if not absolutely sanctioned, by the law authorizing the issue.

How was such a law obtained? It is credibly asserted in North Carolina that it was by the collusion of Governor Holden with one so called "General" Littlefield, the then State printer, one George W. Swepson, an almshouse manager, and Messrs. Porter and Fitzhugh, of the firm of Soutter & Co., new bankers of the city of New York.

The first plan of operation by those who united in this swindle, was the taking of a room in the Capitol at Raleigh, by Littlefield and Swepson, which was opened and arranged on the plan of a tavern "bar," excepting that all was free to members of the assembly. A plentiful supply of costly wines, brandy, whisky, rum, etc., was supplied. Porter, of Soutter & Co., it is asserted, supplied the funds. And in this manner, according to Swepson's boast, $240,000 was paid out either in "liquor" or on cash bribes to secure the passage of the law. It now appears, that Littlefield still owes about $14,000 of his part of purchase of the wines and liquors for the "bar."

The law through, no delay ensued beyond the necessary time to create the bonds; they were delivered to the respective companies. Littlefield first absconded with seven millions of the bonds to Florida, where with a portion of them he purchased a broken down railroad of that State, became President of its company, and thus clothed with something more of nominal respectability than he had hitherto possessed, made his appearance in New York, together with Swepson, and Andrew Jackson Jones, another of the co-operative railroad Presidents in the swindle.

Entering thus upon a broader field of finance, their friend and coadjutor, Porter, became their guide. It appears he advised that they should place the bonds in the hands of Soutter and Co., his firm, and that they would advance money on them as wanted, and so rig the market as to cause an appreciation in price. They were then ranging at about 60 cents on the dollar; but Porter either did not fairly estimate the capacity of his house to advance, or that of his friends to draw. Soutter & Co., became pressed, and Littlefield, Swepson, Jones & Co. more pressing. They were all fond of the good things of life, and did not stint themselves in wine or other enjoyments of an expensive nature which flesh is given to. Jones had his "specialty" in gambling, and it is said lost, at single sittings, sums of $30,000.

Soutter & Co. could not stand the drain, and began secretly to sell, thus depreciating the bonds, until they reached down to about 40, at or possibly before which the other parties began to think the old bond of honor among thieves was no longer sacred to the fraternity, and in the hope of extricating the remainder of the hypothecating, sought aid by inducing their Wall Street friends to buy while they secretly sold. Very soon these bonds sunk to less than a fourth of their par rate, and entirely out of reach of the first swindlers.

Of the entire $17,000,000, less than five per cent. of the amount has reached North Carolina, and not one hundred thousand dollars has been expended on the Western North Carolina Road, for which the seven millions were issued.

A more barefaced act of thieving villainy has never been perpetrated, and all the parties engaged in it should be fully punished. They are still at large, although under some plea Swepson was arrested at Taylor's Hotel, and placed under bonds to the amount of $25,000, being sustained and made good by a deposit of a like sum of money in a Jersey City Bank.

Littlefield went to Europe, but it is supposed he will have to return or keep in hiding there. Swepson uses the old refuge of Drew & Fisk, Taylor's Hotel; but even this, it is asserted, cannot hold him in safety for a much longer period.

It will be remembered, that James T. Soutter was formerly President of the Bank of the Republic; but being a "Southern sympathizer," he fled to Europe during the rebellion, and there engaged in aiding the Confederate cause, his love for the South being so great that he tries his hand at a new form of Southern expansion.

It is evident the State of North Carolina will adopt one of two courses, either the entire repudiation of this fraudulent issue, or the arrest and punishment of each party enged in the frauds, and thereby possibly recovering such portion of the stolen securities as will enable it to escape the disgrace of repudiation.

This latter would seem to be the honest and true one, and New York should lend the most efficient aid thereto. It is full time she did something to drive from her business places either those who come from abroad or those who live here to practice such swindles and villainies as this North Carolina transaction holds up to the world for its scorn and condemnation.

A funny thing happened at a presbyterian church the other day. The new steam heating aparatus was in use for the first time, and after service one lady meeting an elder in the aisle said: "That boiler ain't under our seat, is it?" "No," was the reply, "it is under the pulpit platform."—"Well, if it blows up, we shall have a good man to go ahead of us," was the reply.

Habitual Constipation.

HOW TO EFFECT A CERTAIN AND PERMANENT CURE.

Some occupations of life predispose to Costiveness, especially those which allow but little exercise. Persons who contract this unfortunate habit of body, under such circumstances, might possibly be relieved by changing their sedentary employments for others of a more active kind; but this is by no means certain. Habitual constipation is a very obstinate disorder. All the ordinary so called remedies invariably aggravate it. Nothing can be more injurious than the continued use of strong aperients. They at first irritate, and finally almost paralyze the bowels—rendering them so torpid that enormous doses of cathartic medicines have no effect upon them. A mild aperient combined with a gentle stimulant, is the true remedy; and a combination in the happiest proportion, of these ingredients, is found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This famous Stomachic invigorates the whole intestinal canal, while quietly removing from its convolutions all impediments to a free passage through them. No more purgative has this double operation. No ordinary stimulant effects the desired object. Cases of Constipation abandoned as hopeless by distinguished medical men have been cured in a few weeks by the Bitters. To those who have tried all the medicines of the dispensary in vain, we say try this irresistible stimulant and aperient. There is no sufficient reason why constipation should be the consequence of sedentary habits. Hostetter's Bitters, by supplying the vigor which would otherwise be derived from exercise, will in all cases enable the system to perform its excretory functions regularly and healthfully.

OXFORD HIGH SCHOOL,

Oxford, N. C.

J. H. HORNER, R. H. GRAVES, } Associate Principals.

THIS SCHOOL which has been for the last twenty years under the exclusive charge of J. H. Horner, will henceforth be conducted under the joint supervision of the above principals, with competent assistant instructors in every department.

The course of study has been extended, and boys will be thoroughly fitted for advanced classes in college, especial reference being had to the qualifications requisite to admission into the Senior Classes in the University of Virginia, or Washington Lee University, The latter of which has again conferred upon the school the honor of a scholarship in that Institution.

A regular course of study in Natural Science, Commercial Science and the Modern Languages has been added to the school for those students, who, desiring to acquire only a complete business education may wish to substitute these studies for Latin and Greek.

No pains will be spared to render the instruction in the school efficient and to furnish to students the most ample facilities for thorough preparation for college or for the acquisition of a good business education; and the principals flatter themselves that their long and successful career as teachers is a sufficient guarantee that the school will be in all respects worthy the public confidence and support.

The Spring Session will open the second Monday in January.

Circulars containing terms and full particulars furnished upon application to either of the principals.

PROF. CHANDLER of New York City, in a lecture delivered by him at Cooper Institute, March 19, 1870, said:

"It is hardly necessary to enlarge upon the terrible accidents which have resulted from the use of unsafe kerosene; you have only to read the news-papers from day to day to see them. It is stated by some that these are exaggerated; that those accidents never occur, and that you and I never had a friend burned to death; still we do have an enormous number of terrible accidents from petroleum. In the last seven months of 1869 there were fifty-five kerosene accidents in New York, resulting in twenty-three deaths, eighteen serious injuries and fourteen slight ones. The total result for the year 1869 for the City of New York which I myself have cut from news-papers is fifty-two fatal accidents from dangerous kerosene, fifty severe and six slight, in all 108 persons to my knowledge, from my own reading, have been injured by kerosene in one year."

ATTENTION, RESCUE FIRE CO.—The annual meeting of Rescue Steam Fire Engine Company will be held in their Hall, on Monday evening next, 5th inst., at 7½ o'clock. The by-laws exact a heavy fine on members for non attendance at this meeting at which the election of officers for the ensuing year, and much other important business will be transacted.

SCHOOL No. 1, (colored) near the Grave Yard, will be opened to-day. Richard Young having been employed to take charge of the same.

The Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina convenes in this city to day.

A NEW PAPER.—We have received the Prospectus of the FRANKLIN COURIER, a weekly newspaper, the publication of which is to commence in Louisburg, Franklin County, on or about the 1st day of January; Mr. H. M. Pleasants, proprietor. Mr. Pleasants is a practical printer of some years experience, and is capable of getting up a good paper. Our Franklin friends need a live, go-a-head, active paper, to stir them up on several important matters, and we hope the Courier may receive their hearty support.

Gen. D. H. Hill had on exhibition at the Charlotte Fair, a Turkey gobbler that had set on and hatched out several eggs. The offsprings of the maternal gobbler were with him.

The Charlotte Fair was a decided success. On Thursday it is estimated that at least fifteen thousand persons were in attendance.

The Western Democrat, the office of which was destroyed by fire a few days since, will be resumed in about two weeks. We wish Mr. Yates better fortune hereafter.

The first annual Fair of the M. Y. and C. A. and M. Society of Charlotte commenced in that city on Wednesday, under flattering auspices. The Observer of the 1st inst. says the prospects as indicated so early are very encouraging." Yesterday Gov. Vance delivered a Memorial Address on the Fair Grounds, upon the Life and Character of General Robert Edward Lee. The exhibition of stock, fancy work, mechanics manufacture and so forth very good; and the crowd of ladies and gentlemen present, quite large. May all have the happiest time.

Mr. Ashley, Superintendant of Public Schools, have sent $1,927.25 to be used in carrying on the public schools in Edgecombe county. There are 7,709 children in the county, and the Superintendant gives them about 25 cents a piece for their education.

Mr. John Rhyne, of Gaston county, while running a scrub race at the Fair at Charlotte, on Wednesday, was thrown from his horse, and had his left leg broken just above the ankle.

The census shows that North Carolina has gained 70,005 inhabitants during the last ten years, and now has a population of 1,072,000.

N. C. ANNUAL CONFERENCE, METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH.

SECOND DAY.

Rev. W. H. Wills, a minister of forty years standing, and in connection with the Conference, whose health has been so seriously impaired for some time, asked to be transferred to the unstationed list;—instead of granting this, the Conference adopted the following resolution by a unanimous rising vote, to-wit:

"Resolved, That with all due respect to the request of our beloved brother, Rev. W. H. Wills, and entertaining a high regard for him on account of his great and long-tried devotion to the cause of our Zion, and his arduous labors for a long continuance of years, as an active itinerant, in building up the Methodist Protestant Church;—we do with loving hearts, venture to decline to grant his request "to be transferred to the unstationed list;" but from our love for him and for the Church, in order that the Conference may enjoy the benefit of his counsels and experience, we do venture to retain his name upon our journal, praying God for his restoration to health and strength, and that we may as a Conference once more have the happiness to see him sit among us"

Ministers and Laymen coming in to day, renders the Conference as full as it will probably be. I think there are now about forty members present.

Letters were received from Rev. L. W. Bates, D. D., of the Maryland Conference and Rev W. J. Roberts of the Holston Conference; Fraternal Messengers appointed by their respective Conferences, stating their inability to attend. Much regret seems to be entertained on account of the failure of the reverend gentlemen to be present.

There was an expression of hope that Rev. Daniel Bowers of Baltimore, who was appointed colleague of Rev. Dr. Bates, would be present ere the adjournment of the Conference.

The election of President, which took place this afternoon, resulted in the choice of the incumbent of that office, Rev. A. W. Lineberry, who has so faithfully served the church during the past twelve months.

The written report of his operations—read yesterday—for the Conference year just ended, occupying some fifteen pages, sets forth the condition of the whole work, as observed from his stand point. The District over which he is appointed general Superintendent—a sort of quasi Bishop, extends from the seaboard to Buncombe, and gives the executive officer heavy work and extensive travel.

Six nominations, under the direction of the membership of the respective churches and neighborhoods, were made for the place of holding the next annual session, and the Conference warmly solicited on behalf of each; yet no determination was had—the selection being waved for the present. S.

STATE DEBT OF NORTH CAROLINA.

BALTIMORE, MD, Nov. 29, 1870.

MR. EDITOR: Having three-fourths of my property invested in the ante-bellum bonds of the State of North Carolina, I am much concerned about the disposition to be made of the question of compromise and fifty per cent reduction of the State debt suggested some weeks since by the SENTINEL and by Gov. Holden in his late message. While submitting to whatever may be the decision of the Legislature now in session, I desire to present most respectfully, a few thoughts for consideration.

Two years ago, the taxables of the State were reported at one hundred and twenty millions. Since then values have increased thirty millions or fifteen millions a year.—The State now has one hundred and fifty millions of taxables and more than one million of inhabitants.

With these facts, is it possible, the State is not able to pay more than three per cent interest on a debt of twenty five millions, which will be about the amount of debt that will probably be recognized by the present Legislature?

What would you, Mr. Editor, think of your private debtor, who would say to you, 'tis true, I have six times as much property as the debt amounts to; but I have been unfortunate and have met with unexpected losses, and, therefore, you must consent to take only half your claim or one-twelfth of my means?

Ten years hence, at same ratio of increase (it will be accelerated,) the State will have three hundred millions of taxables. With such means then, will North Carolina be satisfied that justice has been done to her creditors by the reduction now contemplated?

But if there is to be compromise the rate of interest should not be decided on present ability alone. The State should concede something, yes much, on the certain and speedy increase of her population and wealth.

A compromise between a State and her creditors is often all a one-sided affair.—All the power is on one side and nothing but submission on the other. The case is otherwise between individuals as debtors and creditors.

Having shown my great confidence in the people of North Carolina and participated in her just feelings of State pride hitherto, I am anxious that the flag of the "Old North" should not be lowered now. How then will the charge of repudiation of honest debts be avoided in case of present compromise and reduction? The only way I can see is that a provision be incorporated in the law for reduction assuring creditors that the interest cut off will be paid when the State shall be worth three or four hundred millions of taxables.

The State of Maryland was thirty years ago as much embarrassed in her finances as North Carolina is at present. Her leading statesmen of all parties earnestly united to restore the State's credit. Taxes were laid on to pay six per cent interest and create a small sinking fund and the people were educated to the point of preserving the State credit. The result was success and Maryland bonds are now two per cent above par. AMICUS.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—Allow me to state, briefly, the position occupied by a majority of the House, on Wednesday last, on the resolutions reported by the Committee on Privileges and Elections, in regard to the Caswell and Alamance elections.

Mr. Phillips, in explanation of his position, said he should vote for the resolution, resting his course upon the rightfulness of the action of the Executive, inasmuch as it was strictly in accordance with law, as expounded by a majority of the Justics of the Supreme Court, which view, he thought, was supported by precedent.

Mr. Hargrove said he should oppose the resolutions, as the Alamance branch of the subject resolved itself into a matter of fact, and therefore in unseating the gentleman from Alamance he would require the Committee to send for persons and papers.

Mr. Gregory said, the question presented was not one of law, nor yet, as maintained by the gentleman from Granville (Mr. Hargrove) purely one of fact, such as would require the examination of persons and papers, but properly reported on by the Committee, and that the majority, in supporting the report, rested the case solely upon the great patent fact, as shown by the record, namely by the proclamation of the Executive and the annual message, just sent in, that the military were in full occupation and control of said counties, and that they proposed to act upon that fact, stripped, as it was of all extraneous matter, either of law or fact, in accordance with the old fashioned English idea, made sacred by precedent, that not even the militia should be paraded on the day of election. A COMMONER.

DIED,

In this City on sunday evening, the 4 h inst., MR. JOHN H. WHITE, aged 37 years.

The funeral will take place at the M E. Church, on Tuesday evening the 6:h inst., at 3 o'clock.

Saturday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Foreign advices are much confused. The impression exists in diplomatic circles that the French have made a brilliant effort, and, that at last authentic advices, were pushing their advantage.

The French Legation here, think the story of the war will be told within the next four days

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 3—The Gerard Iron Tube Works have been burned The loss is estimated at $175,000. Three hundred and fifty workmen have been thus thrown out of employment.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—The Tribune's correspondent at Garibaldi's headquarters at Autuns, writes on Thursday that the Prussians on Wednesday attacked Autuns with 12 cannon, infantry and cavalry. They were repulsed with great loss. The Prussians shelled the city. The Mobiles behaved well.

The Tribune's correspondent telegraphs at 2 o'clock on Thursday from Versailles, that the firing on the 30th ult. was followed by no fresh movements. Yesterday (Wednesday) there was a lull in the fire from the forts. To day there is heavy firing in the direction of Charenton.

The Tribune's correspondent telegraphs at 6 o'clock on Friday morning from Orleans, that the army of the Loire was at that moment leaving Orleans and that the Prussians were concentrating at Ganville and Pothiviers.

The World's special dispatch from Tours on Friday announces that Trochu and Palladine had formed a junction, virtually raising the siege of Paris

BERLIN, Dec. 3—The treaty admitting Bavaria into the North German Confederation has been ratified by the Federal Council. The Bavarian Adet will act on the treaty on the 10th inst.

The following is a cable dispatch from private sources:

LONDON, Dec. 3.—By sifting the vast number of confused and contradictory war dispatches received up to this morning the fact is ascertainable, that the French forces on yesterday actually won a victory, as claimed by them, near Orleans, but the Germans certainly repulsed the French attack before Paris.

It is not true that the army of the Loire has formed a junction with Trochu, though the Prussian lines were repeatedly and successfully pierced during the engagement. The bayonet charges of the French were exceedingly brilliant.

Saturday Night Dispatches.

ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, Dec. 3.—No change in the status of affairs. Both Houses meet on Monday; developments hoped for then.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—A London special to the World, from London dated Tours, Dec. 2nd, says: It is officially stated to-night, that one or two days must elapse before the fruits of the movements now in progress may be fully reaped. Up to this time the most complete success has attended the successive steps taken. Every movement bring nearer to each other the armies of the Loire and of Paris During the fighting at the Loire Duncrot and Vinoy captured four Prussian guns and many prisoners.

FORIGN

LONDON, Dec 3.—Advices from Paris to Nov. 30th state that an order had been issued to the effect that the army movements and port entries not sanctioned by the government are not to be published on pain of suppression. The military authorities have made public the following details of recent events around Paris: On the 28th at daybreak, a cannonade was opened from the forts on the South of the city. On the next day General Vinoy, the second and Despara moved out of the fortifications on a reconnoissance south of L'Hay and and Chesey Leroy. They attacked the position of the Prussians and carried them. The Prussians were also dislodged at Granerderes; loss severe.

VERSAILLES, Dec 2—The Prussians are concentrating at a point 30 miles south of Paris to dispute the advance of Paladine.

LILLE, Dec. 2—Ducrot's sortie from Paris was successful. He is now seeking to effect a junction with Paladine.

WE See a great deal in the papers about the coming exhibition of Col. Simon Hare's New Circus &c. When it does come, it will no doubt be a grand affair, for the Colonel is some in his role, and sage, and does a great many funny things. Besides all this the Colonel is the best looking man in town, which is accounted for, from the fact that he is a patron of LIFE INSURANCE AS AN INVESTMENT.

THE

Widows & Orphans

BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF NEW YORK.

Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON-FORFEITABLE WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring Dividends annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash with no portion of its reserve fund in premium notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any Company doing business in this State. No "Deposit system to render values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount, paid on each surrendered policy as shown by New York Insurance Reports, 1869 in evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred, out of several hundred policy-holders in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company, to pay larger dividends than Companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Fictitious Dividends are not declared, but Dividends are given from the actual surplus in accordance with the Company's Charter. The attention of the public is invited to the following comparisons of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurances, of the

TONTINE DIVIDEND PLAN:

The Equitable

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,500,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes-of-hand of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4 000,000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $3,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included the dividend for the present year), as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealings so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1, 1869, was $51,021,341 00.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan, which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year being nearly $15,000 000 greater than any other company.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain teal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
